

Corporate Governance Statement 2018

This Corporate Governance Statement sets out the current position of Woomera Mining Limited (Company) with regards to the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3rd Edition, 2014) (Principles and Recommendations).

While the Principles and Recommendations are not mandatory, the Company will be required to disclose the extent to which it complies with the Principles and Recommendations in its future annual reports.

Recommendations

Item	Recommendation	Comment	Implemented
Principle 1 - Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	The Company's Board Charter sets out the roles and responsibilities of the Board and Management. It is available for review at www.woomex.com.au (Company's Website).	Yes
1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	The Company undertakes appropriate checks in respect of any person who is being considered as a director. These checks may include character, experience, education and financial history and background checks. The Company provides all relevant candidate information contained in the Principles and Recommendations about any candidate to enable security holders to make informed decisions regarding the candidate's election or re-election.	Yes
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	The Company enters into a detailed letter of appointment or employment contract with each director and employee.	Yes
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters	The Company's Board Charter sets out the roles and responsibilities of the Company	Yes to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Secretary. The Board Charter is available for review on the Company's Website.

1.5	A listed entity should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them, and either: (d) (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (2) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act.	The Board values diversity and recognises the benefits diversity can provide the Company's, particularly in respect of its ability to achieve its goals. The Board has an established diversity policy which is publicly available on the Company Website. Given the size of the Company, the nature of the employment structure and the limited number of Board and senior executive positions available, the Company does not believe that it is practical or efficient to establish measurable objectives at this time and as and when circumstances warrant, the Board will take into consideration, diversity, as one of the criteria in formulating decisions. Whilst the Company believes that the current non-compliance with this recommendation will not be detrimental to the Company, it also recognises that a talented, skilful and diverse workforce will be an important factor to the Company's future success as the Company strives to reach the requisite corporate and commercial maturity. A summary of the proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organization is shown below <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th></th> <th>Males(%)</th> <th>Females(%)</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Board</td> <td>3 (100%)</td> <td>0(0%)</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Executive*</td> <td>3 (100%)</td> <td>0(0%)</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Technical</td> <td>0(0%)</td> <td>1(100%)</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> includes company secretary includes part time employee and contract personnel		Males(%)	Females(%)	Board	3 (100%)	0(0%)	Executive	3 (100%)	0(0%)	Technical	0(0%)	1(100%)	Yes

The goals are based on corporate requirements and any areas for improvement identified. The Chair will provide each Director with confidential feedback on their performance. As at the date of the Company's 2018 Annual Report, a performance evaluation of the Board, its committees and directors had not yet been undertaken.
1.7	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	The Board is responsible for evaluating the performance of the senior executives as set out in the Board Charter on the Company's Website. As at the date of the Company's 2018 Annual Report, a performance evaluation of its senior executives had not yet been undertaken.	Yes
Principle 2 – Structure the board to add value
2.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met 	At the present time the Company does not comply with Principle 2.1 as it has not established a nomination committee. Given the size of the Company, the Board considers that it is not prudent to form a nomination committee to deal with the selection and appointment of new Directors at this stage. If any vacancies arise on the Board, all directors are involved in the search and recruitment of a replacement. The Board undertakes the checks referred to item 1.2 to ensure all replacements	No

	throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively	have the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.
2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Members of the Board have been brought together to provide a blend of qualifications, skills and national and international experience required for managing a company operating within the mining industry and periodically reviews balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively. The skills, experience and expertise relevant to the position of director held by each director in office is included Director's Report component of the Company's 2018 Annual Report. In view of the above, the Company does not currently have a skills and diversity matrix in relation to the Board members. Whilst the Company believes that the current non-compliance with this recommendation is not detrimental to the Company, the Board will consider the establishment of a skills matrix during the current reporting period. Details of the Directors' skills, experience and meeting attendance will be set out in the Directors' report in each year's Annual Report.	No
2.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described	Given the size of the Company, Mr Joe Fekete is the only current independent director. Details of the length of service of each director will be set out in the Directors' report in each year's Annual Report.	Yes

	in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	The following directors of the Company are not considered independent. Mr Neville Martin – Chairman Mr Martin is a Non-Executive Director and the current Chairman of the Company.
